

Hidromarinha is a company dedicated to the wholesale and retail trade of seals, products and accessories for the Industry, has machines that allow it to manufacture industrial sealing products and provides a mobile workshop service for the assembly of pipes and accessories in hydraulic systems.

During the provision of services and the production of seals, Hidromarinha is committed to:

- Establishing expansion strategies with a view to the sustainable development of the company;
- Ensuring the level of satisfaction of our Customers and Stakeholders, adjusting activities to their requirements and expectations;
- Providing a technical-commercial support service to Customers, informing them of the best solution for their needs;
- Having a stock in quantity and diversity, taking into account the market areas in which it operates, in order to be able to deliver orders in a short period of time;
- Separating products for Customer orders according to the specified requirements;
- Ensuring the fastest possible service;
- Producing seals according to Customer specifications;
- Providing pipe and accessory assembly services in hydraulic systems at Customer companies;
- Establishing and maintaining partnership relations with prestigious brands, allowing the availability of products with added value to the market;
- Preserving relationships with approved suppliers;
- Cultivating a work environment that promotes highly motivated, innovative employees who work in a professionally supportive team;
- Keeping the team technically qualified by promoting training actions for employees;
- Ensuring suitable infrastructures that guarantee storage, production and the provision of compliant services;
- Continuously improving the effectiveness and efficiency of the quality management system, providing for the optimization of tasks and avoiding errors;
- Ensuring compliance with Customer and Stakeholder requirements, as well as with the regulatory, legal and regulatory requirements associated with the products and services provided.